I have examined the accounts of the selectmen of the town of Albion ending March 1st, 1883, and allowed them as herein reported.

C. W. HUSSEY, Auditor.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF SCHOOLS.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING, MARCH, 1ST, 1883

DISTRICT No. 2....NATHAN DAVIS, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Abbie S. Taylor, of China. Miss T. is a young teacher of but little experience; order quite good, and at my second visit quite a number of the parents were present at which time both teacher and scholars showed that they had worked in harmony. Average attendance, 10.

Winter Term—by Mr. Fred B. Hussey, of Albion. This is Mr. H's. second term in this district and he gave universal satisfaction at both terms. Everything was conducted with care and promptness. The final examination showed that they had one of the best of teachers. Average attendance, 24.

DISTRICT No. 3....OTIS B. CHASE, Agent.

Summer and Winter Terms—by Miss Annie J. Chase, of Albion. This is Miss C's. fifth term in succession in this district; she is of a mild and amiable disposition and gains the love and respect of her pupils; also a thorough instructor and advances them rapidly. Average attendance in Summer, 15, and in Winter, 13.

DISTRICT No. 4....JOEL FARNHAM, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Florence L. Fowler, of Albion. Miss F. is one of our best teachers, possessing both natural and acquired abilities sufficient to teach our most difficult and advanced schools. Average attendance, 14.

Winter Term—by Mr. Frank Shaw, of Newburgh. This was Mr. S's. first attempt at teaching and he failed in discipline; after keeping four weeks he left and the term was finished by his brother, B. F. Shaw, who has had some experience in teaching. The scholars made good progress under his instruction, and all knew their places and kept them. Average attendance, 20.

DISTRICT No. 5....JOHN H. WHITAKER, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Olive A. Gould, of Albion. This is the second school in town and Miss G. is an old and experienced teacher; under her thorough instruction they made rapid progress. At the closing examination quite a number of the parents were present. Average attendance, 26.

Winter Term—by Mr. Frank Colburn, of Windsor. At my first visit there were over 30 scholars present and Mr. C. seemed to be the right teacher in the right place. Order excellent and well classified. From sickness or other cause the term was not completed, consequently it was not visited at its close. Average attendance, 26.

DISTRICT No. 6....JOHN W. HALL, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Em S. Fletcher, of China. Miss F. is gifted with the best qualifications of a successful teacher. Good order, prompt recitations and weekly reviews; we hope to meet her again in our schools. Average attendance, 13.

Winter term—by Miss Geneva H. Grant, of Albion. Miss G. has had only one term's experience in this work; order not quite up to the standard; the closing examination showed a very good progress. Average attendance, 17.

DISTRICT No. 8....N. W. WALCOTT, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Georgia A. Wilson, of Albion. Miss W. is a member of the district and has taught the Primary school two terms; she passed a good examination but failed to take that interest in the school required to make it profitable; the closing examination showed that reviews had been neglected. Average attendance, 24.

Winter Term—by Mr. W. W. Andrews, of Paris. This is the largest and most advanced school in town and the pupils made good progress the present term. Average attendance, 32.

DISTRICT No. 9....ABEL WORK, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Lizzie J. Fuller, of Albion. On account of a misunderstanding of the length of the school it was not visited but once, which was the first of the term. Miss F. did very well for so young a teacher. Average attendance, 9.

Winter Term—by Miss Emma F. Webb, of Albion. Miss. W. labored hard with her pupils for their thoroughness and advancement. She reaped her reward at their final examination which was a credit to both teacher and pupils. Average attendance, 14.

DISTRICT No. 10....LEONIDAS WHITE, Agent.

Summer Term—by Sadie F. Shorey, of Albion. At my first visit the school seemed very noisy and the teacher was laboring hard to advance the pupils and at the same time preserve order; the last visit showed a decided improvement in every respect; examination good. Average attendance, 16.

Winter Term—by Miss Julia F. Worthing, of Palermo. Miss W. has taught a number of schools, among them this one. The pupils made good advancement. A little deficient in order. Average attendance, 16.

DISTRICT No. 11....BYRON P. TILTON, Agent.

This district has had but one term for the year under the instruction of Miss Sadie F. Shorey, of Albion. Although few in number they were advanced and made the school interesting to both pupils and teacher. Average attendance, 9.

DISTRICT No. 12... HARRISON CROSBY, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Emma F. Webb, of Albion. Miss W. seems to be at home in the school room. Examination good. Every thing went like clock-work at both visits. Average attendance, 14.

Winter Term—by Miss Olive A. Gould, of Albion. We have met Miss G. in our schools many times before and she gives good satisfaction. On account of sickness, her school was not finished, but from what I learn, they accomplished a good work. Average attendance, 16.

DISTRICT No. 13... ERASTUS SMILEY, Agent.

Summer Term—by Miss Nell H. Barnes, of Albion. Miss B., although young in years and without any experience in teaching, went to work with a determination to succeed. She had good order and prompt recitations; examination showed her efforts were not in vain. Average attendance, 7.

Winter Term—by Miss Mellie S. Rowe, of Palermo. The school is so very small that it does not give a teacher much chance to display their abilities. It has been visited twice, but is still in session. Advancement very good. Average attendance, 8.

DISTRICT No. 14... SALATHIEL BRAGG, Agent.

Summer and Fall Terms—by Miss Abbie J. Fowler, of Albion, who labored hard and faithfully with her pupils. The closing examination showed a rapid and thorough instruction. Average attendance, 17.

Winter Term—by Miss Alice B. Hunter, of Clinton. At my first visit order was excellent and Miss H. was working for the interest of the school. At my last visit I was disappointed in the order and advancement of the school. Average attendance, 15.

In conclusion, I would add that I have tried to discharge the duties involved upon me the past year with promptness and fidelity.

Taking them as a whole there has been a fair degree of improvement in our schools for the past year; some have fallen below our expectations, others have exceeded them.

In those schools where the parents make a practice of visiting them, at least twice a year, we find them in advance of those where no such practice exists.

The school rooms, as a general thing, have been made very comfortable and those that are not, ought to undergo such repairs. Cold school rooms are detrimental to the health of both teacher and pupils as well as the advancement of the school.

LILLIE V. DILLING, Supervisor.
