

Authorization Form for Deposit of Student Research

This permission form provides authorization for the permanent addition of student work to the collections and digital archives of the Raymond H. Fogler Library, University of Maine. Student work will be optimized for discovery and open access on the web. (Please note, this form authorizes deposit of works other than theses and dissertations, which are submitted via different procedures.)

Both the student and the faculty research advisor for the submitted work must sign this form before student research documents or files are deposited in the library collections. A scanned copy of this authorization form should be submitted as an additional file when submitting work to the Digital Commons Student Work collection. The signed form will not be displayed on the web. The original signed print form should accompany student work that is submitted to the library in hardcopy format only.

Title of work _____

I agree to deposit this work for the permanent collections of the Raymond H. Fogler Library at The University of Maine, and I agree that the library has the non-exclusive right to make this work available for open access via an institutional repository platform such as DigitalCommons@maine.edu or successor technologies. I acknowledge that the submitted work is original work by me; that it properly cites the work of others; and that it contains all permissions for works (e.g. text excerpts, images, sound or video content, interview transcripts, observational studies) from original content providers, copyright holders (e.g. corporations, authors, performers, interviewees, employers) that are necessary to make the work openly accessible online. This agreement will remain in place unless I terminate it via signed communication with the library.
